

Making the Connection: Toxic Stress, Teen Brains, & Building Resilience Facilitator Training

Who is the toolkit for?

Safe and caring adults who work with youth in schools, prevention clubs, leadership programs, faith communities, and community organizations.

This toolkit gives adult the tools to connect with youth on topics including:

- Toxic stress, ACEs, and trauma
- Teen brain development
- Coping and risk factors
- Costs of early substance use
- Vaping, e-cigs, & marijuana
- Mapping your resilience
- What communities can do to help

What you will learn

- Proven, effective approaches to talking with youth
- Understand trauma-informed approaches to prevention
- Gain familiarity with toolkit modules, guides, content, and strategies for use
- Explore toolkit guide, content, and platform
- Practice facilitation using conversational method with content samples

Register for one of our upcoming training dates today!

www.Bit.ly/ConnectToolkit

If you would like to schedule a training for your team of 12 or more, contact Leanne Reid at leanne.reid@esd112.org or call 360.952.3457 for more information.

